

THE WEEKLY ARIZONAN

JUNE 12.....1869.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Dr. N. P. Richardson and wife left for California on Sunday.

The Paymaster arrived on Thursday and paid off the troops at Camp Lowell on Friday. "Mac Collins" company "H." 32d Infantry arrived here on Tuesday from Camp Crittenden en route for Camp Date creek.

REINFORCEMENT:—Company "L," 1st Cavy, commanded by Capt. Berry, arrived from Cal. on Wednesday, en route for Camp Goodwin.

The train of H. T. Stevens, of Fort Yuma, arrived on Monday last, bringing a large stock of merchandise for I. Goldberg & Co.

The train of E. N. Fish & Co. left for Yuma on Saturday. This train continues to make the fastest time of any on the route between Tucson and Yuma—the "round trip" in thirty days.

Prof. Lorio promises to entertain all who may "come and see me," in the corral attached to Hodges' saloon. The Professor having full confidence in his own prowess, is sanguine about the success of his performances to-night.

This weather has become extremely warm and if it were not for the cooling influence of Levin's lager and Charley Brown's soda one-half of the inhabitants of Tucson would certainly have died of sun stroke during the past week.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE:—News was brought to town yesterday of the murder, by Indians, of Mr. Pennington, of Sonoma. One of his sons is reported missing and has, it is supposed, likewise fallen into the hands of the Indians. Mr. Pennington was one of the very oldest pioneers of Arizona.

Mr. J. Anderson left for his mine at Apache Pass on Wednesday. Work on this mine has for some time been suspended but will be resumed about the 20th inst. Every preparation has been made within the past two months to work this mine vigorously and none are disposed to doubt the success of the enterprise. It is in good hands—Mr. Anderson is not one of those men who can be diverted from his purpose so long as hope of accomplishing remains. He has overcome many obstacles in Arizona and the many which opposed themselves to the development of this mine are fast giving way to his energy and perseverance.

FAULT:—The prospects of an abundant harvest of fruit, the coming season, are such as have not hitherto been witnessed in this locality. We had a walk among the groves of quince and peach trees in the valley, a few evenings since, and although we had heard many speak of the fecundity of the season, were not prepared to witness a crop so astoundingly prolific. The quinces, now about the size of hen's eggs hang in myriads from the trees and the branches of the peach trees are already drooping from the gradually increasing weight they sustain.

BUSINESS:—An individual came to this city on Monday last bringing with him thirty eight head of cattle which he offered for sale. His conditions being decidedly reasonable he soon found a purchaser, received his money—some six hundred dollars—and departed forthwith. On Wednesday a second party arrived from Sonora and startled the happy buyer by declaring that the cattle were his property and had been stolen from him a few days previously, and that he was now here to take possession of them. A warrant was immediately procured for the arrest of the party first mentioned; but to make a prisoner of a frontiersman well mounted and armed is a task proverbially difficult, nor was this case an exception. The party claiming the cattle left town on Thursday without having taken any measures to recover "his stock," which leads the people to regard his report as a falsehood and himself as an amateur swindler.

TRICKERY, SWINDLES, ETC., ETC.—We do not feel it by any means a pleasing task to be obliged to speak thus publicly to the people of Tucson, but the trickery which several individuals practise upon us renders further silence somewhat burdensome. Some five months ago we engaged in conducting the journal in this city, invested our means in the purchase of material, and gave all our time to the object of helping our public to a useful and entertaining newspaper; that in this our efforts have been successful all will admit. But the majority of our citizens seem to have conceived the opinion that their approbation is quite sufficient to support a newspaper, and many come to us with the most brazen assurance, order work, examine and approve of the manner in which it is executed, carry it off, and never pay for it. There are several who have played us this trick, and you who read this and know you have done so, please don't forget that we likewise know you have done so and know moreover, that although you plead "no money," we alone, of your creditors, remain unpaid. Another class of patrons(?) are those who order advertisements inserted once, twice, or thrice but supposed we would not charge for such a "trifle." Another class still are those who subscribe, promising to call next day, or next week and pay up arrears together with a year's advance; but they never call, and when we forward their bill it is no sooner read than repudiated. There are but a few of this third class of delinquents in Tucson, they live principally elsewhere in the Territory, and in order that our honest subscribers at a distance may not become mixed up with these repudiators, we will, after a few weeks, if these latter fail to come to terms, compile and publish their names with a statement of the amount repudiated by each; such publication will satisfy our readers that we have not spoken too severely. We are fast becoming disgusted at the idle vauntings of many who contend that "the newspaper must be supported" and "the newspaper should be supported" and who will yet invariably growl at the amount of our bill when we undertake to collect and then finish off by handing us the amount they "think reasonable" and even do this with such an ill grace that it is evidently done under protest. And last and worst, there are now in Tucson some eight or ten merchants, most of them "enterprising Americans" who will not so much as advertise. These non-hearted? individuals expect others to support a paper for them to read. Let the people of Tucson permit their local newspaper to perish and they will soon discover a marked change. What, for instance, would Prescott be without a newspaper? That town scarcely larger than Tubac and about one-fifth of the size of Tucson gives more to the support of its newspaper in one month than is given by Tucson for a like purpose in three. Of this any one may satisfy himself by looking over the advertisements in both papers and reckoning their amounts, our terms for advertising by the year being a little less than half the amount charged by the Prescott paper for a like term, and our rates per square being one-third less. In conclusion we should add that we have not received nor do we expect to receive anything for nothing. What we ask is to be paid that which is justly ours and the patronage of those who are benefited by us; if these we receive we shall have no fault to find.

Tucson, A. T., June 1st, 1869.

M. R. Platt of Tucson, is hereby appointed our agent for the transaction of all business connected directly or indirectly with transportation of Government stores from Tucson Depot to all posts dependant upon it for supplies.
